SERMON NOTES

Psalm 119:9-16 The Word of the Lord: “Benefits” ב Beth

This letter in Hebrew corresponds to the letter B in English. The sound of the letter rhymes with mate. The root of the letter attaches its character to a house. In fact, many words in the bible that begin with beth refer to a house, like Bethlehem meaning “house of bread” or Bethel “house of God.” According to various Hebrew scholars, the picture of the letter has the opening to the left that identifies a window of the house. In Psalm 119:9-16 we are invited to see the benefits of the Word of Lord in the life of His people.

- I. The Word of the Lord builds _____.
  - A. He blocks from sensuality (9)
  - B. He barricades from straying (10)
  - C. He bars from sinning (11)

- II. The Word of the Lord is blessed and _____ us to be taught.
  - A. He is boasted on (12a)
  - B. He is begged for (12b)

- III. The Word of the Lord brings _____.
  - A. To mouth (13)
  - B. To merriment (14)
  - C. To mind (15)
  - D. To emotions (16a) and
  - E. To memory (16b)
